June is the month for Father's Day, so it is appropriate that we stop to consider God the Father and His relationship not only to the Son Yeshua (Jesus) but also to all of God's children. To perceive the Father and the son as one and the same deprives a person of a remarkable understanding of God. Who is God the Father, and what is His relationship, not only to Yeshua who is called His son but also to those whom He calls His children, who are also identified as sons? Complete Article

Subsequent to betrothal, the Jewish bride-to-be was not idle as she awaited the return of her beloved bridegroom. she used the interval between the betrothal and marriage to prepare for her wedding. She must be without spot or wrinkle at the bridegroom's sudden return. A Jewish bride must make 'tviloh', a ritualistic cleansing bath that prepares the bride physically and spiritually for intimacy with her husband. This ancient practice presents a New Testament challenge for the Bride of Christ.

'Jonah' is the Hebrew word for 'dove' and the Book of Jonah is a 'picture' of the two 'jonahs' of Leviticus 14 which picture the two works of Messiah. Two 'jonahs' were used in a leprosy-cleansing ritual. In the Scriptures leprosy is always associated with rebellion against God. Many details of this cleansing ritual point to Messiah's first sacrificial work and to His highly anticipated second restoration work.
