A Gift for Our Partners!

Anne has recently completed a study on the Book of Nahum, and was startled to discover how intense God's future wrath in judgment will be including (and starting with) His own people! This study led her to better understand the purpose of tribulation. She is currently creating a booklet on this study that will become a gift to partners next month.

Greetings!

Welcome to Our New Acting Executive Director!

Please help us welcome our new Executive Director, Mary Sue Fillpot, who knows BibleInteract well because she has been a supporting partner for many years. Anne Davis has stepped down because BI has grown beyond what she can handle, and Mary Sue brings a welcome gift of executive organization. For 28 years she has been a corporate travel representative for a division of American Express, and for 10 of those years she was a supervisor. "My dad instilled in me from an early age the goal to strive for the best," she explained, "and I learned that organization was the key to success." Please feel free to contact Mary Sue with any questions or suggestions. bibleinteract@comcast.net.

Many individuals and families experience dysfunctionality from time to time, but few households can compare with the family of Jacob. With two wives, two concubines, a daughter, and an oversized quiver full of twelve sons, one who was singled out as his obvious favorite, there was bound to be plenty of drama in the patriarch's tent. Joseph, the son of Jacob's beloved Rachel, was the apple of his father's eye...much to the chagrin of his intensely jealous siblings who sought his demise.

Pray Without Ceasing by Elizabeth Avallone

Several years ago Dr. Anne Davis introduced me to the notion that the New Testament is not a separate revelation but rather a commentary on the Old Testament. This idea has revolutionized my understanding of the Scriptures. I believe the N.T. cannot be understood apart from the context it derives from the Old Testament. Reading through the book of Daniel I noticed a phrase in Dan 6:10 that seems to be the context for 1 Thess 5:17. I made an interesting discovery.

Why Abraham? by Michael Koplitz

Have you ever wondered why the LORD selected Abraham to be the Eternal Father of the Hebrew people? I always found this to be an interesting question. The LORD destroyed almost all life on Earth when He brought the Great Flood.

Noah and his family were on the Ark and survived. The LORD essentially restarted humanity with Noah. So, why didn't the LORD create the Chosen People from Noah or one of his descendants? If Noah was selected as the Eternal Father than everyone of us would be a member of the Chosen People.
